Learning Opportunity

Target audience: Gr 3-6 Teachers, instructional leaders and pre-service teachers are encouraged to attend.

Have you recently welcomed a non-English speaker to your grades 3-6 class? In this session you will learn what to expect and how to start planning for and teaching your new EAL students. From testing and first impressions to planning a modified curriculum in core subjects, you will learn some new tools and perspectives to help you with your non-English speaking students.

Presenters

Shawna Turner

Shawna Turner is currently teaching her 19th year of elementary education in Brooks, Alberta: The City of 100 Hellos. During this time, she has learned some ways to help her EAL students integrate into mainstream classes and begin their English educational journeys. Shawna is the EAL teacher at a school in Brooks with the the most diverse and the highest percentage of EAL students in the school district. By no means an expert, Shawna loves the challenge of teaching EAL learners and enjoys sharing ideas with colleagues.

Registration Notes
