Learning Opportunity

Target Audience: Gr 4-9 instructional leaders, pre-service teachers and teachers are encouraged to attend.

Discover how to elevate your students' fluency and reading comprehension through FUSE—a whole-class approach that fosters student autonomy by engaging them in meaningful research, speaking on topics they genuinely care about. FUSE artfully immerses students in reading, researching, and presenting—often without them even realizing how much they're learning! The student roles offer choice, relevance, and an authentic audience—key ingredients for boosting engagement, comprehension, and confidence. Come try the roles yourself and step into the shoes of a Mythbuster, Gaming Expert, or Movie Reviewer!

Presenters

Carla Cameron

Carla Cameron is an educator with over 22 years of experience supporting diverse learners across the Canadian prairie provinces. Holding a master's degree in reading development and instruction, she brings a deep understanding of how to help all students grow as readers, including those facing learning disabilities such as dyslexia, as well as students who simply need targeted support to thrive. For more than 15 years, Carla has worked closely with learners who struggle with reading, combining research-based practices with practical classroom insight. She has served as a classroom teacher, learning resource teacher, and workshop presenter, and currently leads as the Inclusive Practices Coordinator at Connect Charter School in Calgary, AB.
