Learning Opportunity

Target Audience: Gr. 4-12 Teachers of FSL

Does your new French as a Second Language Assignment have you saying: “Au secours!”? Join this webinar for help getting organized. We’ll examine the essentials of teaching FSL and chat about what to teach and how to teach it by discussing the curriculum, key resources, important routines, and language assessment. Lastly, we’ll briefly review upcoming FSL PL opportunities to get you oriented and en route. This session is perfect for those new to teaching FSL.

This session will be delivered in English with examples in French; participants can communicate in the official language of their choice.

Presenters

Quinton Stotz

Quinton Stotz B.Ed., MA (Applied Linguistics) is a practising FSL and Advanced Placement French teacher in Edmonton, and a research assistant at Concordia University’s Applied Linguistics Lab in Montréal. His real-world language experience intersects multiple language families, contexts, competences, and motivations, each of which adds a new dynamic to his teaching. Striving to foster greater capacities to learn and teach languages, Quinton has designed and facilitated professional learning opportunities on a local, provincial and national level since 2014. His professional interests centre on additional language development, research-based language pedagogy, and language teacher training.

Registration Notes

This session will be recorded and available for 30 days.
