Learning Opportunity

Target Audience: Gr. 4-12 Teachers of FSL

Assessment in a language class isn't always intuitive. This session is designed to bring clarity to both your practice and your gradebook so that you can communicate student growth meaningfully and effectively. We'll discuss which skills can (and should) be assessed in light of the POS, under what conditions, and more importantly how! We'll also explore how assessment can be used as a tool to foster student growth.

This session will be delivered in English with examples in French; participants can communicate in the official language of their choice

Presenters

Quinton Stotz

Quinton Stotz B.Ed., MA (Applied Linguistics) is a practising FSL and Advanced Placement French teacher in Edmonton, and a research assistant at Concordia University's Applied Linguistics Lab in Montréal. His real-world language experience intersects multiple language families, contexts, competences, and motivations, each of which adds a new dynamic to his teaching. Striving to foster greater capacities to learn and teach languages, Quinton has designed and facilitated professional learning opportunities on a local, provincial and national level since 2014. His professional interests centre on additional language development, research-based language pedagogy, and language teacher training.
