Learning Opportunity

Target audience: Gr. 4-12 Teachers of FSL or French Immersion; teachers of other languages and programs welcome.

Staying in the target language may seem a daunting task with students new to French, but it's not only entirely possible, but easier than you might expect. That said, it is a skill that requires honing and this session will provide participants with a guide to follow and a skill inventory to consider.

This session is held in English with examples and demonstrations in French and other languages (participants are not expected to have proficiency in these languages through design); participants can communicate in the official language of their choice.

Presenters

Quinton Stotz

Quinton Stotz B.Ed., MA (Applied Linguistics) is a practising FSL and Advanced Placement French teacher in Edmonton, and a research assistant at Concordia University's Applied Linguistics Lab in Montréal. His real-world language experience intersects multiple language families, contexts, competences, and motivations, each of which adds a new dynamic to his teaching. Striving to foster greater capacities to learn and teach languages, Quinton has designed and facilitated professional learning opportunities on a local, provincial and national level since 2014. His professional interests centre on additional language development, research-based language pedagogy, and language teacher training.

Registration Notes
