Learning Opportunity

Target Audience: Gr 4-8 teachers, educational assistants, parents and administrators are encourage to attend.

Increase your knowledge in pinpointing where to start building foundational phonics skills and learn how to structure phonics instruction in 10- 15 minute to building decoding skills. Keeping in mind, the valuable integration of all the layers of reading: word study, vocabulary, fluency, and comprehension, along with this explicit and systematic phonics teaching, is important to enhance transfer of learning.

Presenters

Camille Lezubski

Camille Lezubski is an educator with over 26 years of experience supporting student literacy and achievement. She currently serves as the English Language Arts and Literature K–6 Consultant for Calgary Catholic School District, where she works alongside teachers and school leaders to strengthen literacy instruction and improve student outcomes.

Camille holds a Bachelor of Education in Early Childhood Education and a Master of Education in Curriculum and Instruction, both from the University of Calgary. She is also a Certified Orton-Gillingham Practitioner with extensive experience in evidence-based literacy instruction and intervention. Camille is endorsed by Dr Lesley Laud, founder and director of Releasing Writers (formerly Think SRSD), to offer this training with Kim Tackaberry (DPL) through The Consortium (Calgary Office).

Throughout her career, Camille has been passionate about helping teachers translate research into practical classroom practice. Her work focuses on structured literacy, writing instruction, assessment, intervention, and professional learning that empowers educators to meet the diverse needs of all learners.

In addition to her professional roles, Camille is a proud mother of three and understands the importance of fostering confidence, resilience, and a love of learning both in and beyond the classroom.
